Time to talk event

Thursday, 2nd February 2017

From 5<sup>pm</sup> Makerspace is having tea, scones and a nice chat. A nice, positive chat about mental health.

There are lots of things that make a difference to feeling better. And there are lots of people with all sorts of different experiences. We've already found chatting about good – even just from thinking about hosting a 'time to talk' event.

Come share, free and open and companionable.
